GENERAL RULES.

I.—The affairs of this Institution shall be managed by a Committee of thirteen Proprietors, to be chosen annually at the Annual General Meeting, and a Treasurer and Secretary, who shall also be chosen annually at the same Meeting, and who shall be an ex-officio member of the Committee.

II.—A General Meeting of the Proprietors shall be holden annually in the Library Room on the second Wednesday in January, at two o'clock in the afternoon, of which every Proprietor shall have a printed notice from the Librarian at least a week before the time.

III.—The accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary shall be exhibited at this Meeting, and all Rules for the regulation of the Institution must receive the sanction of a majority of the Proprietors present, including the proxies of the ladies.

IV.—Every proposed new Rule, or alteration of a Rule already made, shall be posted up in the Library Room for the inspection of the Proprietors, at least twenty-one days previous to a General Meeting.

V.—At the Annual General Meeting the Committee for the ensuing year shall be chosen by ballot, each Proprietor giving to the Scrutineers, to be then appointed, a list of the names of the thirteen persons for whom he or she votes.

VI.—Ladies who are members and intend to vote by proxy, shall make out a list of names in their own handwriting, and if any alteration is made therein by the proxy presenting it, who must be a Proprietor, the list shall be void.

VII.—Those persons having the greatest number of votes shall compose the Committee; but in case any one so chosen refuses to serve, the next in number of votes shall take his place, and he who has the majority shall be President, and shall take the chair at the succeeding Annual General Meeting; in case of his non-attendance, the next in order shall preside.

VIII.—Any ten of the Proprietors, or the Committee, shall have power to call a General Meeting at any time, by putting up a notice in the Library stating the alterations in the Rules intended to be proposed, or any other object of the Meeting, at least twenty-one days before the Meeting is to be held.

IX.—The Proprietors, in all cases of General Meeting, shall be summoned by the Librarian one week previously to its taking place.

X.—Each new Proprietor shall receive an admission ticket, signed by two of the Committee and the Treasurer and Secretary, on payment of one guinea; such ticket to be produced to the Librarian when required.

XI.—Every Proprietor shall have the power of transferring his or her interest in the Library, by sale, gift, or will, to any person who shall submit to the Rules of the Institution; but no person shall have the benefit of such transfer until it has received the sanction of the Committee and the new member's name has been entered in the list of Proprietors.

XII.—The annual subscription of twenty-one shillings shall be paid by each Proprietor to the Treasurer and Secretary on the first Wednesday in January. Any Proprietor admitted after the first six months to pay ten shillings and sixpence for that year.

XIII.—Any Proprietor suffering his or her subscription to remain unpaid three months after the first Wednesday in January, shall have a written notice from the Librarian, which, if necessary, shall be repeated at the expiration of the following month; but if not paid within one week from the notice then given, such person's property in the Library shall then be forfeited.

XIV.—The propriety of admitting applicants who may wish to become members of the Institution shall be decided by the Committee.

COMMITTEE.

I.—The Committee shall meet on the second Monday in every month, or on such other day as they may appoint, and any five of them present may proceed to business.

II.—The Committee shall decide by ballot what books are to be admitted, also where and in what manner they are to be purchased.

III.—The Committee shall have the power of presenting for sale, at the Annual General Meeting, such periodicals as they deem unnecessary to continue in the Library.

IV.—A statement of the accounts, and a list of the books purchased, shall be printed at the end of each year, and a copy shall be sent to each Proprietor.

TREASURER AND SECRETARY.

The Treasurer and Secretary shall receive the price of Admission Tickets and Subscriptions, and shall pay all the just claims on the Society so far as the funds shall enable him; and at the Annual General Meeting he shall settle all accounts between himself and the Society. He shall also record the transactions of the Committee and of all the General Meetings of the Proprietors.

LIBRARIAN.

I.—The Librarian shall be chosen by the Committee, and shall continue in office without re-election so long as the Proprietors think fit, and shall be paid a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the Committee.

II.—The Librarian shall have the custody of the books, and shall be accountable for them, as well as for any damage they may sustain.

III.—The Librarian shall keep a distinct account of all the books, which shall be regularly numbered on the back for that purpose, and shall note the time of delivering them out and receiving them in.

IV.—The Librarian shall inform the Committee of any damage which the books may have sustained, in order that such reparation may be made as they may judge reasonable.

V.—The Librarian shall demand, by a written notice, all books which may have been kept beyond the time allowed, if any Proprietor shall require it.

VI.—The Librarian shall summon the Committee three days previously to that on which they are to meet.

VII.—The Librarian shall attend the Library during such hours and on such days as from time to time may be fixed by the Committee.

BOOKS—PROPOSING—TIME OF READING, &c.

I.—Any Proprietor may propose books for admission, by entering the title, price, number of volumes, and a reference to their character if possible, in a book to be kept for that purpose in the Library, to which the proposer must sign his or her name.

II.—The time allowed for reading each book to be determined by the Committee, and marked on the inside of the cover before it is taken out of the Library, with power to extend the time at any subsequent period.

III.—Proprietors who reside two miles from Carlisle shall have two days added to the time for keeping each book.

IV.—The Library shall be closed for a fortnight for the examination of the books, at such time in the summer as the Committee may appoint; and all books shall be returned previous to the examination, and none taken out till after it. The books shall be examined by the Committee, Treasurer and Secretary, and Librarian, and an account of those which are injured shall be laid before the next Annual General Meeting.

PENALTIES.

I.—Whoever shall keep a book beyond the period limited, shall, after notice given by the Librarian, forfeit 3d. per day until the same shall be returned.

II.—No Proprietor shall receive a Library Book from any other person than the Librarian, or an authorized assistant.

III.—Any Proprietor who shall lend a Library Book to a Non-Proprietor shall forfeit 2s. 6d.

IV.—If any book or set of books be lost or materially injured, the Proprietor who took it out of the Library shall either pay the original price, or replace it by another in as good condition within one month of the time that it ought to have been returned to the Library.

V.—No Proprietor shall receive any books from the Library till all his or her fines are paid; and if any books are sent for in the meantime by such Proprietor, a notice to the above effect shall be given by the Librarian.

VI.—The Committee shall have the power of mitigating fines in peculiar cases; but no appeal shall be considered valid unless made at the first or second meeting of the Committee after the penalty has been incurred. The decision of the Committee to be final.

VII.—Every Proprietor who refuses to comply with these Rules or to pay the fines incurred shall, at the expiration of nine months after such refusal, forfeit all his or her right and property in the Library ; and the Committee shall cause such person's name to be erased from the list of Proprietors.
